Study of Bible prophecy can be overwhelming, so overwhelming many do not even want to undertake the task. They often believe by faith and try and learn from their pastors. Some of the pastors take advantage of this situation and lead the people in the wrong direction. Having studied some of these pastors before finding my way, with the help of the Holy Spirit, may He guide you in your study today.

The popular authors and televangelists were my first area of research into the Bible, although growing up in the U.S. Bible Belt predominantly Baptist. I bought books and viewed many TV programs becoming familiar with their popular end time scenarios.

Taking in many views on prophecy, it was not long before coming across a televangelist who had a similar end time message as the others, but what separated the Church of God (CoG) was the adherence to the 7th day Sabbath; that God's Ten Commandments were never nailed to the cross or done away with as most others were teaching. If this were true then this was very important.

Using my Bible to check these men it was without question the CoG was right about this point--the 7th day is God's true Sabbath. I began to make that change, although it was unusual at first.

Soon after a change of address I received a flyer in the mail to attend a prophecy seminar at the local Seventh-day Adventist Church. Looking for a 7th day church and not knowing the differences in all these denominations I attended the seminar. This was my first introduction to Historicism.

After completing the entire 28 day seminar I was baptised Seventh-day Adventist (SDA). After attending the church for another nine months I never made it out of the introduction room where new members are vetted and get to ask questions about the SDA doctrines. What ended it for me was Christmas observance. Having learned from the Church of God that Christmas was a pagan celebration I could not understand how the SDA Church could observe Christmas, along with Easter, St Valentines Day and Halloween, while rejecting Sunday due to the same paganism. Error had crept into Adventism.

Leaving the Seventh-day Adventist Church was the best outcome that could have happened. While there is a great deal to learn from the SDA, leaving there allowed me to see the errors and undertake personal study with others. The Lord has since revealed all that I have asked.

Chapter 1

Historicism vs Futurism

What Is Historicism?

The Historicist method of interpreting Bible prophecy was used by all the Protestant Reformers.¹ It is the traditional view of prophecy. Even the Roman Church had their own brand of Historicism, although false.

Historicism reads the book of Revelation as having been fulfilled in actual world history from the time given 2000 years ago until the Second Coming, still to come. (not to be confused with Preterism, which claims Jesus has already returned in spiritual Christendom.) Historicism is the traditional view of the book of Daniel understood, in part, for over 2000 years.

In brief, Historicism is the historical interpretation of many of the prophecies in the book of Revelation, particularly regarding Antichrist. The Anti-Christ, Man of Sin, or Mystery of Iniquity is the system of Papacy. The Reformers had the historical interpretation of the Antichrist. Historicism has no "gap" between the 69th and 70th week of Daniel 9. The Prince being cut off in the midst of the week is Christ, the Messiah, who died in the midst of the 70th week in favor of natural Israel at the first advent. Historicism treats Revelation as a Book of signs and symbols.

Historicism vs Futurism

The Seventh-day Adventist Church will often say they are the only denomination still teaching the Historicist view of prophecy. While they are the largest denomination, SDA are not the only one to teach this. In fact SDA have taken true Historicism and turned it on it's head making it of none-effect. All denominations are corrupt, including the SDA Church. If you think you are in the only denomination that has not been corrupted, think again!

Some Pentecostal pastors are also Historicist,^{2,3,4,5} and some with the Christadelphians.⁶ There are certainly many independents such as myself, also.

Overview of Historicist Bible Prophecy

The book of Revelation tells us it was given to John by an angel from Jesus to reveal to his people the events about to unfold (verse 1). It was not given for way off in the future.

"The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to show unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:"
(Revelation 1:1)

Historicism vs Futurism

The first 'seven' found are the Seven Churches, correctly understood by many as periods of God's church from the time of Jesus until the Second Coming. Thus many find and understand we are today that final church of Laodicean; meaning, to be lukewarm.

The seven seals, trumpets and vials are God's judgment or 'wrath,' not upon his own people, rather upon the empire of Satan ruling the world. We read in Revelation, the kings and rich men take refuge in the dens of the earth, while God's people are sealed in their foreheads. Just as in Egypt God's wrath passed over his people and befell the Pharaoh and his people, so too are God's endtime judgments the anti-type of Egypt.

The seals opened in history and continue in chronological order:

1st through 6th seals.

7th seal - opens the seven trumpets.

Revelation 8:1 "And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour. And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets."

Historicism vs Futurism

1st through 6th trumpets.

7th trumpet - opens the seven vials.

Revelation 11:14 "...And the seventh angel sounded; ... And the nations were angry, and your wrath is come,"

1st through 7th vials of God's "wrath" then begins.

This chronological order of the unfolding of God's prophetic timeline is important to then show what is false interpretation coming from other camps who often mix these together and run them parallel, when they were never meant to be.

Historicism treats prophecy as symbolically fulfilled in history, i.e. beast, horns, sea, harlot--are symbols not to be read literal.

Soon after Revelation was given the Seals began to open as judgment upon pagan or Imperial Rome until the fall of Rome, 476 AD.

Historicism vs Futurism

The 5th, 6th & 7th trumpets - the three woes - are God's judgment upon now papal Rome, East & West. This was the period of Islam (locusts) in the 7th century as judgment upon two-thirds of Rome's Eastern Orthodox.

The 7th trumpet blew in Revelation 11 following the 42 months-1260 days. Prophetic time always utilizes the day-year principle or 1260 years. This was holy roman empire. These 1260 years are very important to show where we are in history and prophecy timelines.

The 7th trumpet opened the seven vials of God's wrath or judgment upon papal Rome West beginning at the French Revolution, 1789.

Revelation 11:14 "The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe comes quickly. And the seventh angel sounded; ... And the nations were angry, and your wrath is come,"

The vials:

1,2,3 vials - the French Revolution.

4th vial - the Revolutions of 1848 across Europe.

5th vial - Papal States-HRE was dissolved, 1870.

6th vial - Russian Revolution, 1917.

7th vial - events of ww 1 & 2.

(note: expounded in greater detail in later chapters.)

Historicism vs Futurism

We are nearly 2000 years from the cross thus we can today understand prophecy has been fulfilled all but the Second Coming where we are literally on the cusp of the Advent.

When expositing the book of Daniel most of Christianity today still use the Historicist interpretation (i.e. Four Kingdoms of Daniel).⁷ When teaching the book of Revelation probably ninety-percent or more of the denominations today are Futurist.⁸

Futurism was spread to the Christian seminaries and churches following publication of Scofield's Bible (c.1909) that contained notes leading the reader into a Futurist view. Then following the founding of the state of Israel in 1917 to 1948, the deception ensnared most of Christianity.⁹

What is Futurism?

Futurism has placed a hold on prophecy with a 2000 year 'gap' placed in the book of Daniel chapter 9: the 70 weeks of Daniel (v.24-27). These seventy weeks are admitted, by most all of Christianity, to be actually 490 years: 70 weeks x 7 days = 490 days, and the 'day' in prophecy is a symbol that is actually a year or 490 years.

The 'gap' has been inexplicably placed between weeks 69 and 70, throwing the final seven years off into the future.

Historicism vs Futurism

The Seventy Weeks prophecy is about the coming Messiah. It was fulfilled 2000 years ago thus there is no final seven years to come in the future.

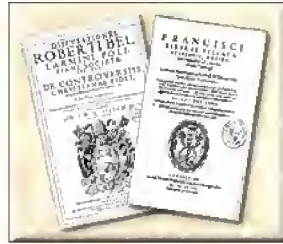

The Futurists further claim that during these seven years all of Revelation from chapter four on will be fulfilled at that time; the four horsemen of the apocalypse and armageddon. That would be an amazing amount of Bible to be fulfilled in such a short time. These Futurists are claiming that nothing has been fulfilled for the past 2000 years! It is just not so.

Who is responsible for this grand deception?

While Cyrus Scofield was a promoter of the futurist's dispensationalism or Christian-Zionism, the theological teaching originated with the Roman Church's Jesuit Order, for Counter-Reformation.

The Jesuits are a Catholic Order of priests who wanted to take pressure off the Church by promoting an alternate teaching than the one advocated by the Reformers,^{9,10} who charged that the papal Church was 'antichrist' and the 'beast' of Daniel and Revelation, the harlot, and much more.¹¹ By shifting the Christian's focus off into the future and to the state of Israel the Roman Church was free to continue empire building while maneuvering her forces to abolish the heretics once and for all.

Historicism vs Futurism

Francisco Ribera (1537-1591) was a Jesuit doctor of theology, born in Spain, who began writing a lengthy (500 page) commentary in 1585 on the book of Revelation titled: In Sacrum Beati Ioannis Apostoli, and Evangelistiae Apocalypsin Commentarij, published in 1590. This work would remain largely unused until following the French Revolution (1789). After Napoleon arrested the Pope and seized the Papal States the Roman Church lost power.^{12,13} The Protestants were now free to worship and form Bible societies without fear of persecution. To counter this the Jesuits revived their false counter-interpretation, to much success.

Historicism vs Futurism

That was not the end of Rome's multiheaded empire, however, as one empire simply replaced the other by the 'fire' of revolution. Once regrouped the Jesuits continued disseminating the Futurist deception by the English pen of John Darby (1800-1882).¹⁴ Scofield then continued the work of Darby--all having direct ties to Westcott and Hort, and the Jesuits, recruited on the college campus through fraternities, such as the Ghost Society.^{15,16} They were infiltrators into Protestantism. The Jesuits rarely do such a thing themselves, rather, often direct events from afar while their Knights go in under cloak.

The Ghost Society, and many other societies like it - all founded by Papal Knights - were the revolutionaries of the new empire. They were Marxists and very anti-religion in all forms, especially Christianity.

Scofield's Bible was introduced in the year 1909. Following the first and second world wars the state of Israel was founded, in 1948. At that time Christian thought shifted towards Futurism as though given a sign from God (as supposed). Ask any today and they will explain with a most honest reply, the founding of the state of Israel was fulfillment of Bible prophecy. This sentiment is found among many of their authors.

Chapter 2

The Seven Seals

The book of Revelation is a prophetic book filled with symbolism. These four horses and the prophecy does not read literal rather began in the events of history soon after Jesus.

1st Seal - white horse: Imperial Rome, 96-185 AD.

2nd Seal - red horse: Imperial Rome, 185-284 AD.

3rd Seal - black horse: Imperial Rome, 200-250 AD.

4th Seal - pale horse: Imperial Rome, 250-300 AD.

The symbolism of the horses and the riders fill in the details of the period of history. For example the white horse's rider has a 'crown', symbol of kings of the empire. White is a symbol of victory, and this was the period of Rome's empire at it's peak.

God has foretold the thing that we may know there is a God in charge.

"Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, you may believe that I am he." (John 13:19)

The red horse denotes civil war that struck the empire during this period.

"...and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword." (Revelation 6:4)

The Seven Seals

The symbol 'earth' meaning the Roman earth or empire, not the entire world. This 'earth' is used many times throughout prophecy and needs to be properly understood to read the prophecy as intended. Notice the difference in 'earth' and "world".

Revelation 16:14 "For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth to the kings of the earth and of the whole world,"

The kings of the Roman empire at this point rule the whole world.

With the black horse Rome entered a period of despair. At this time according to secular historian Edward Gibbon's, Rise and Fall of the Roman Empire, Rome's empire experienced high taxes from the wars then causing food shortages.

Revelation 6:5 "...and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand. And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see you hurt not the oil and the wine."

"And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth." (Revelation 6:8)

The Seven Seals

During the pale horse period the Roman emperor, Diocletian, divided the empire into four regions each with its own ruler. This was a time of great famine and many deaths, again according to the historian Edward Gibbon, Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire (pub. 1798).

5th & 6th Seals - Fall of the Roman Empire, 313-395 AD.

"And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood; And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth," (Revelation 6:12,13)

The 'sun, moon and stars' are symbolism of authority earlier found in the books of Genesis (37:9,10) and Daniel (8:9,10). God's judgment upon Rome was fulfilled in the Seven Seals:

"And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains; And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: For the great day of his wrath has come; and who shall be able to stand?" (Revelation 6:15-17)

This is not an endtime passage rather God's wrath or judgment was exacted upon Imperial Rome at that time in the 4th & 5th centuries.

The 7th Seal then opens the Seven Trumpets:

"And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour. And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets." (Revelation 8:1,2)

Chapter 3

The Seven Trumpets

The first four trumpets see the Roman Empire divided into one-thirds and attacked by the Ostrogoths, the Vandals, and other nations of Europe. (see: Revelation 8:6-12) This continues until 476 AD. The final three trumpets are the Three Woes.

Revelation 8:13 "And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the citizens of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!"

After the fall of the Roman Empire, in the 6th century the Roman Pope was given control over the entire western empire by decree from the Eastern Orthodox Emperor who then sent his general to install the Pope in Rome.

The Three Woes are God's judgment upon Papal Rome, East and West.

5th Trumpet - When Islam swept through the southern one-third of Rome's Orthodox empire, 612 AD.

6th Trumpet - another one-third of Eastern Orthodox, Constantinople falls to Islam, 1057-1453 AD.

7th Trumpet - Opens the Seven Vials - God's judgment upon Papal Rome West, 1789.

The Seven Trumpets

The 5th Trumpet - First Woe

"And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit. And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit." (Revelation 9:1,2)

The smoke from the bottomless pit denotes a false doctrine that is not Christian: Islam.

"And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth:" (Revelation 9:3)

Locusts or grasshoppers is Old Testament symbolism for Arabs, due to the region they live and their unstoppable migration.

"and the children of the east, even they came up against them ... and they came as grasshoppers (arbeh) for multitude; for both they and their camels were without number: ... and all the children of the east lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude; and their camels were without number," (Judges 6:3,5; 7:12)

The Bible defines its own symbolism. The first time the symbol is used defines it throughout. We cannot invent our own definitions but must let the Bible define itself. When this is done the prophecies come through as intended.

The Seven Trumpets

Revelation 9:12 "One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter."

The 6th Trumpet - Second Woe

After a period of peace the Islamic Turkish Ottoman Empire attack one-third of the Eastern Orthodox at Constantinople.

"Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates. And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, in order to slay the third part of men." (Revelation 9:14,15)

One year - 365 days (of the current calendar)

One month - 30 days

One day - 1 day.

Total = 396 days and prophetic symbolism uses day = year or 396 years.

The Euphrates river divided the Roman Empire. The Turks crossed the Euphrates in 1057 AD and in 1453 AD the Orthodox at Constantinople fell to Islam, exactly 396 years. The Orthodox's Constantinople became Muslim, Istanbul.

As Constantinople fell those Eastern Orthodox fled West bringing their preserved Greek New Testament. They founded the Russian Empire, whose very language is based on Greek. As those Greek New Testaments made their way through the colleges of Europe - coinciding the advent of Gutenberg's movable-type printing press - together, this directly led to the Protestant Reformation, 1517. Accordingly, Revelation chapter 10 is about the Protestant Reformation.

The Seven Trumpets

"And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire: And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,"
(Revelation 10:1,2)

So much symbolism in this passage, where to begin?

The 'little book' is the Bible printed for the first time, previously on large scrolls kept locked away accessible only to the priests. The 'rainbow' and 'sun' are symbols of God's righteousness, telling us the little book was from God. The 'sea' is a symbol for people (Rev 17:15) while the 'earth' as we have already shown is symbolic of the ruling Roman empire. Thus the passage tells us the Bible went to the people of the empire.

The Third Woe is God's judgment upon Papal Rome in the West, Europe. We are told exactly when it began.

The 1260 Years of the Holy Roman Empire

After the fall of the Imperial Roman Empire (476 AD) the Eastern Orthodox Emperor, Justinian, issued a decree in the year 533 AD giving all power and authority in the West to the Pope. Justinian sent his general, Belisarius, to clear Rome and restore rule to the empire. This was accomplished when the Ostrogoths were driven out of Rome in 538. The Papal States began in infancy building to the Holy Roman Empire that ruled many nations of Europe and beyond. From 538 until 1798 the Pope ruled the West.¹⁷

During this 1260 year period there were several Inquisitions as the Pope exercised authority over the state to punish heretics. All of the empire was Catholic. Due to this Inquisition, and with the rise of Protestantism, many nations of Europe wanted to lessen the influence of the Pope in their nations. The priests and their Inquisition were expelled. With growing unpopularity of the old empire something had to change. The Pope forever banned the Jesuits in 1773.^{18,19}

The Seven Trumpets

It was at this time a new empire took shape, and following their first successful revolution in America were declared and denoted the New Order - replacing the old order of the holy roman empire - on the currency of the U.S. one dollar, with roman numerals bearing the year, 1776.

The 1776 date on the dollar is not to be confused with the Declaration of Independence on July 04, rather following the successful revolution the Jesuit's Illuminati was founded, May 01.²⁰

Next the revolution took France. The same organizers of the American Revolution were also involved in France.^{21,22}

After a great deal of bloodshed Napoleon seized power. Napoleon sent his general, Berthier, to arrest the Pope. Napoleon would also seize the Papal States. This occurred on February 10, 1798.²³

The French Revolution is a turning point in the history of Papal Rome's empire.; the end of the holy roman empire and founding of a secular form of government that does not force Roman Catholicism on the empire.

As the Holy Roman Empire ruled for 1260 years, persecuting God's Christian people, much space in Revelation (chapters 11 through 19) is devoted to this period of history.

Revelation 11:2,3 "But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months. And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth."

The Seven Trumpets

Following the Protestant Reformation the French Revolution ends the holy roman empire. During the 1260 years the 'two witnesses' - the Bible - prophesied in 'sackcloth', while being suppressed.

"And this Gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations and then shall the end come." (Matthew 24:14)

(see also candlestick symbolism in Zech 4 & 5 referring to the God's word and law.)

The 7th Trumpet - Third Woe

At the end of the 1260 years the Third Woe sounds as the Seven Vials begin to pour upon Papal Rome West - the holy roman empire.

"The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe comes quickly. And the seventh angel sounded; ... And the nations were angry, and your wrath is come," (Revelation 11:14-18)

Chapter 4

The Beast From The Sea

"And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority."
(Revelation 13:1,2)

The symbolism of this passage comes from the book of Daniel chapter 7 where four 'beasts' are given, with a total of seven heads. Daniel's chapter 7 vision followed the vision given in chapter 2 of four kingdoms or empires.

The 'beast' symbolism used in chapter 7 represents a kingdom or empire.

"Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise:" (Daniel 7:23, 24)

These four empires have long been understood as follows:

- Babylon Empire (1st) head.
- Medo-Persian Empire (2nd) head.
- Greek Empire (3,4,5,6th) heads. (Dn 7:6)
- Roman Empire (7th) head.

These seven heads are often the subject of wide speculation. But there they are found in Daniel, no speculation needed.

The Beast From The Sea

The 'horns' on the beast represent kings. Kings most always rule nations within the empire. In chapter 7 the 'little horn' rules the empire itself.

Daniel then describes the fall of the Roman Empire and rise of the Holy Roman Empire that would rule for 1260 years. No other empire has ever ruled for this time period. Thus the 'little horn' king is the Pope (or papacy) acting as head of the Vatican, a tiny nation and empire.

Daniel 7:7,8 "After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns. I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things."

The 'iron' symbolism comes from chapter 2 to describe the iron Roman Empire. As the papacy took power three nations of the empire in Europe were "plucked up" or became extinct.

The ten nations of the empire:

1. Anglo-Saxons, English
2. Franks, French
3. Allemans, Germany
4. Burgundians, Swiss
5. Visigoths, Spain
6. Suevi, Portugal
7. Lombards, Italy
8. Vandals (extinct)
9. Heruli (extinct)
10. Ostrogoths (extinct)

"Catholic emperors of the eastern empire found ways to help the Pope by eliminating three of the Arian tribes. The Catholic emperor Zeno (474 to 491) arranged a treaty with the Ostrogoths in 487 which resulted in the eradication of the kingdom of the Arian Heurles in 493. And the Catholic emperor Justinian (527 to 565) exterminated the Arian Vandals in 534 and significantly broke the power of the Arian Ostrogoths in 538. Thus were Daniels three horns the Heurles, the Vandals, and the Ostrogoths plucked up by the roots." (C. Mervyn Maxwell, God Cares, vol.1, Daniel, p.129, Pacific Press Publishing Association, 1981.)

The Beast From The Sea

Then Daniel connects this beast further with the one in Revelation telling us it rules 1260 years.

"And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time." (Daniel 7:25)

..a time (year) 360 days.

..and times (two years) 720 days.

..and dividing of time (half a year) 180 days.

Total = 1260 days or 1260 years using the day-year principle.

The 360 day year is established in Revelation 11: where we read 42 months is also 1260 days, referring back to the original year length at the time of Daniel. This 1260 time period is found several times in Daniel and Revelation about the same dark age of the holy roman empire.

Dn 7:25, time, times and a half.

Dn 12:7, time, times and a half.

Rv 11:2, 42 months.

Rv 11:3, 1260 days.

Rv 12:6, 1260 days.

Rv 12:14, time, times and a half.

Rv 13:5, 42 months.

The Beast From The Sea

Revelation 13:3-9 "And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast. And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him? And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months. And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven. And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all families, and tongues, and nations. And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. If any man have an ear, let him hear."

Chapter 13 verses 1-8 describe characteristics of the beast from the sea in no particular order:

- receives a wound.
- rules for 42 months.
- blasphemes God.
- makes war with the saints.
- demands worship.

All descriptions of the holy roman empire that compelled worship and persecute God's people for 1260 years. Then verse 9 reads: "If any man have an ear, let him hear." The historic timeline then continues in verse 10 when the sea beast receives the 'wound' by the sword as the beast from the earth rises in verse 11.

Chapter 5

The Beast From The Earth

We are told there are seven heads on the beast. There is a 'wound' to one head as another takes over:

Revelation 13:3 "And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast."

There are only FOUR 'beasts' or empires from the time Daniel was given the prophecy in Babylon until the Second Coming. This is a description of the new head of the empire taking over.

Revelation 13:14 "...saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live."

The 'image' of the holy roman empire is the new world order. This new order is secular, not Catholic as the HRE was.

The seventh 'head' of the Roman empire (pagan & papal) ruled until the 'wound' in 1798 when an eighth and final head takes over. We read about the eighth head in Revelation 17. Chapters 11, 13 and 17 expand upon one another, using the same principle found in Daniel chapters 2, 7 and 8. Revelation chapters 11, 13 and 17 all go together, later chapters giving more detail about this important point in history when the holy roman empire is replaced by the new empire.

- Beast from the sea - 7th head.
- Pit beast from the Roman earth - 8th head.

Chapter 6

The Beast From The Bottomless Pit

In chapters 11 and 17 the 8th head we are told rises from the 'bottomless pit', meaning it makes no claim to be Christian.

The beast from the bottomless pit (Rev 11:7) and the the beast from the earth (Rev 13:11) both rise following the 42 months as they are the same 8th head of the beast (Rev 17:8, 11).

From the earth - Roman earth/empire.
From the bottomless pit - not Christian.

The 8th and final head is not Christian; it is secular, and rises from the nations of the holy roman empire, not off in Arabia or China or Japan.

This was precisely fulfilled when in 1798 Napoleon arrested the Pope and seized the Papal States beginning a new order as the old order of the Catholic holy roman empire ended.

The Beast From The Bottomless Pit

Empires are found on their money or coinage. The New Order is no different. The New Order's first republic was the U.S.A. The U.S. one dollar reads: Announcing the Birth of the New World Order (in Latin). Roman numerals on the bottom of the pyramid total: 1776. While 1776 is the date of the U.S. independence it is also the date of the founding of the Illuminati, who were actually the Jesuits following their suppression in 1773. After the successful American Revolution the Jesuits reformed declaring themselves the Illuminati on May 01, 1776.²⁴ It is their Egyptian pyramid on the dollar, just as other Egyptian artifacts are found at the Vatican, including an Egyptian Obelisk. The priests themselves who originally founded the Vatican's sun religion came from Alexandria, Egypt; chiefly, Simon Magus.^{25,26,27,28}

After the successful American Revolution the revolution went into France. The pit beast from the Roman earth had two 'lamb-like' horns, symbolizing Christian nations, in 1798: U.S.A. & France. (The New World became part of the Roman empire after Columbus in 1492: Papal Bull of 1493.^{29,30})

The Beast From The Bottomless Pit

Revelation 13:11 "And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke as a dragon."

While the people of France and the U.S.A. were Christian the government "spoke as a dragon", that is not Christian. Governments 'speak' through their legislation and founding documents--the government is secular, not Christian.

In chapter 17 the harlot rides the beast. The woman is a symbol of the church. Just as the "bride of Christ" denotes God's pure church or people the 'harlot' describes a false church. This is that Roman Catholic Church we are told is "the mother of harlots" earlier found in the book of Daniel, and can be no other as the fourth and final empire is Roman.

Revelation 17:7 "And the angel said unto me, Wherefore did you marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and ten horns. The beast that you saw was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition."

The Roman Church at this point in world history rides the beast from the pit.

"And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goes into perdition." (Revelation 17:11)

The beast from the pit is the 8th head, first found in chapter 11 rising following those 42 months in 1798.

"And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascends out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them." (Revelation 11:7)

The Beast From The Bottomless Pit

The New World Order replaces the Holy Roman Empire

Founded in 1776, the first biblically significant act of the Vatican's new order was to give the old order the deadly 'wound' in 1798 (after the 42 months, Rev 11 & 13). The Freemason, Napoleon, had the Pope arrested and seized the Papal States. In 1814 the Papal States were restored briefly before being dissolved in 1870. The Vatican's NWO has since went about replacing the holy roman empire's monarchies with secular republics as the eighth and final head of the Roman Empire (Rev 17).

The Vatican's NWO has a Catholic wing and a non-Catholic wing, as Military Knights all answer to the Jesuit General by chain-of-command. The Catholics belong to the Knights of Columbus or the Knights of Malta, or numerous other Catholic Orders under the Jesuit's control. The non-Catholics belong to the Freemasons.

The Freemasons were founded by the Knights Templar and the Jesuits who wrote the degrees creating Freemasonry, according to Freemason Grand Secretary General and historian Dr. Albert Mackey.^{31,32,33,34,35,36,37}

Also interesting, Mackey notes that before taking the name Freemason, while the Templars were suppressed, they went under the name Emperors of the East and West, as the Knights Templar were tasked with healing the schism by ruling kingdoms within the eastern and western empires.

At the time of the French Revolution of 1789-1798 the Jesuits were suppressed by the papacy. When the papacy was restored in 1814 the Jesuits were also restored.³⁸ The Jesuits have been ruling the Vatican every since.³⁹

The Jesuits and Freemasonry share a common origins: the Knights Templar. As Templar Knights Freemasons answer by chain-of-command to the Jesuit General. Low level Freemasons are recruited from all walks of life.

The Beast From The Bottomless Pit

Babylon Fell in 1870

The Vatican's NWO rules as the final head of the Roman empire. The 'wound' to the 7th head or Papal States was in 1798 as the Vatican's NWO 8th head took over then dissolving the Papal States in 1870 by the fire of revolution.⁴⁰

As the Papal States were dissolved "Babylon fell". The Catholic Holy Roman Empire was officially dead. The Vatican no longer forces Roman Catholicism on the world.

The once great holy roman empire with all the wealth and power is today relegated to the Roman Church, alone, not seen as a political power. (Revelation 17:1 through 19:10) At times the Roman Church seems to have political power but this is the NWO not the Holy Roman Empire.

Chapter 18 gives even more space to the fall of the seventh head, the holy roman empire; that 'great city', where we can read about shipping and merchants of the empire that ruled for centuries.

Revelation 18:15-17 "The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand far off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, And saying, Alas, alas that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls! For in one hour so great riches has come to nothing. And every ship captain, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood far off,"

The Beast From The Bottomless Pit

The 'wound' that caused her empire to fall is found in chapter 17 when the beast from the bottomless pit and ten 'horn' kings of the earth eat her flesh (empire) and burn her with fire (revolution). The empire fell but the Roman Church like all false religion remains until Jesus returns to destroy them.

On the other side of chapter 18 in chapter 19:11 is the Second Coming. We are very close to this point being 2000 years from the cross.

The 'wound' is not going to 'heal' to become another religious persecuting power as many look for. This wound was to the seventh head as the eighth and final head took over following the '42 months'. The Vatican's New World Order has political bodies in New York, Washington and London. Having founded the United Nations after WW II the secular founding principle of separation of the church and state for which they fought many irreligious revolutions goes contrary to a revived Church-state.

Today the final head of Rome's empire is the Pit Beast that allows freedom of worship until their Masonic-Marxist irreligion agenda can exterminate "intolerant" Bible believing Christianity. The mandatory state schools and media propagate Evolution Theory to brainwash. The mother of all politics is demographics - regions are ethnic cleansed of Christians through immigration and war. Food and healthcare are also under tight control.

Chapter 7

The Seven Vials

As the Seven Seals and Trumpets were God's timeline so too are the the Seven Vials of chapter 16, from the 1789 French Revolution through World War Two.

In Revelation 11 the Seven Vials opened with the Seventh Trumpet - the Third Woe.

Revelation 16:1 "And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God on the earth."

The First Vial

"And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image" (Revelation 16:2)

The year was 1789, and France was in a terrible predicament. After the St. Bartholomew's Day Massacre, and the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes, most of the best and brightest people were killed or driven into exile. Instead of the true Gospel, a tirade of infidelity and atheistic propaganda came from the pens of men like Montesquieu, Voltaire and Rousseau.⁴¹ "From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrefying sores." (Isaiah 1:6)

Those who defended the Roman Church's old empire - with the mark of the beast - came under the revolution's sword and guillotine. Thousands of priests and nuns, as well as the king and his wife, lost their heads.⁴²

The Seven Vials

The Second Vial

"And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea" (Revelation 16:3)

France now became a sea of turmoil and blood! The guillotine was set up, and the Reign of Terror commenced. The guillotine was kept busy day and night in all parts of France. 24,000 priests were murdered.⁴³ It was the St. Bartholomew's Day Massacre in reverse. The persecutors were now the persecuted. Churches were destroyed, atheism was proclaimed the State religion.⁴⁴ "But the wicked are like the troubled sea." (Isaiah 57:20)

The Third Vial

"And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of water: and they became blood" (Revelation 16:4)

The Rise of Napoleon. Napoleon proclaimed himself Emperor and went on a career of conquest the like of which the world had never seen. All the countries of Europe were affected by the Napoleonic Wars. On the invasion of Italy by the French revolutionists, the government of the Pope was overthrown. In 1798 General Berthier marched on Rome, set up a Roman Republic, and the Sovereign Pontiff was carried captive into France. The Papal States were annexed to the French Empire.⁴⁵ Napoleon's career of conquest was finally ended at Waterloo. "And he said to me, The waters which you saw, where the whore sits, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues." (Revelation 17:15)

The Seven Vials

God's people were finally avenged after those 1260 years of persecution by this religious beast power. There was rejoicing in heaven.

"And I heard the angel of the waters say, You are righteous, O Lord, which are, and were, and shall be, because you have judged thus. For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and you have given them blood to drink; for they are worthy. And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are your judgments." (Revelation 16:5-7)

The Fourth Vial

"And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire" (Revelation 16:8)

The next great cataclysm was the Revolutions of 1848. After the defeat of Napoleon the deposed kings returned to their thrones and the Pope returned to Rome. Austrian Prince Metternich was the most reactionary leader at this time. He set up the Council of Vienna,⁴⁶ which restored the Papal States to the Pope. Suddenly, revolution broke out throughout most of the countries of Europe. It began in Paris on Feb 23.⁴⁷ "...that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live." (Revelation 13:12-14)

The Seven Vials

The Fifth Vial

"And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain and repented not of their deeds" (Revelation 16:10,11)

Fall of the Papal States. The year was 1870, a milestone in world history. The Pope had just declared himself infallible when war broke out between France and Prussia. With the rapid Prussian victories, the French bayonets protecting the Pope's temporal dominions were withdrawn, and Italy was finally united and free.⁴⁸ "And the ten horns which you saw on the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire... And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen," (Revelation 17:1 through 19:10)

Turning to the sixth vial, most all of Christianity admits we see the three unclean 'frog' spirits at work today. Historicist interpretation allows no other course but the sixth vial does not precede the first five.

The Sixth Vial

"And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the waters thereof were dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared" (Revelation 16:12)

Fall of the Orthodox at Moscow. 1917, the Russian Revolution conquers the Eastern Orthodox at Moscow. The River Euphrates was always the traditional barrier between East and West. Earlier in prophecy, and history, we find the symbolic 'Euphrates' associated with the eastern Orthodox's empire when Islam (locusts) conquered Constantinople. "Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates." (Revelation 9:14)

The Seven Vials

The Euphrates River

"In the Bible the Euphrates is named among the four rivers which flowed from the Garden of Eden (Gn 2:14), and it formed the northeastern limit of the promised land (Gn 15:18). Throughout all periods it was the boundary between east and west, between the spheres of influence of Assyria and Egypt, and each of the great empires attempted the conquest of the borderland of Syria and Palestine. This is also true of the Persian period (Ez 4:10). In the Hellenistic and Roman periods the Euphrates served as the boundary between the kingdoms of Armenia and Cappadocia, Sophene and Commagene. In the early Roman period it separated Rome from Parthia."⁴⁹

The Seven Vials

The Three Frogs

"And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty." (Revelation 16:13,14)

- From the Dragon: Mystery Babylon's New Age movement.
- From the Beast: The Pit Beast propagates atheism with claims of pagan 'science'.^{52,53}
- From the False Prophet: Roman Catholicism. At this time (c.1909) the false doctrine to come from Rome⁵⁴ was Christian-Zionism⁵⁵ by way of Scofield.⁵⁶ This theology swept all Christian seminaries.⁵⁷

The Seven Vials

The Seventh Vial

"And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done. And there were voices, and thunders, and lightning; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were on the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great. And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. And there fell on men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great." (Revelation 16:17-21)

Events following 1917. Bombs of WW I & II fell from "the air" for the first time ever. Cities of the nations fell. 'Earthquake' in chapter 11 was symbolic of war.⁵⁸ The 'great city' is symbolic for Rome's empire in chapters 17 & 18. The west was divided at this time by Communism, Nazism and Capitalism. The result of war was the Iron Curtain. Since the founding of the United Nations in 1945 there have been no more declared wars in the west. "And this shall be the plague with which the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand on their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth." (Zechariah 14:12)

Chapter 8

Adventism and Ellen White

The Adventist have taken this Historicist Bible truth and made changes in many ways; for example, SDA teach the four horsemen of the seven seals are periods of God's church / people, with the white horse representing the church at the time of Jesus while the pale horse is said to be the church during the dark ages of papal Rome, spanning 1800 years!

Adventist place the seals and trumpets in parallel fulfillment instead of chronological. The seven vials are said to be as yet future events following the "mark of the beast" they claim is a National Sunday Law, which is eschatology dogma for a revived Holy Roman Empire found in other denomination.

The erroneous claims made in Ellen White's book, The Great Controversy, of the 'earth beast' being the U.S.A. first came from another SDA founder, John Andrews,⁵⁹ then included in White's books and teachings. Previous chapters have went into great detail from the Bible and history as to why the U.S.A. - a nation not an empire - is not a 'beast' at all, and identifying the actual 'beast' from the 'earth' and 'pit' or the 8th head of the Roman empire.

Adventism and Ellen White

While God's true Sabbath is absolutely the 7th day, bear in mind, the Protestant Reformers we are told were the 'saints' of God persecuted during those 1260 years (Rv 13:7; Dn 7:21), yet they did not observe the correct Sabbath. What is important is our faith in Jesus alone. While God's law is important (re. sin), how each understand sin is between each person and God, their High Priest. Thus we cannot condemn any man with having the "mark of the beast" while they oppose the 'beast' to the best of their understanding. Breaking the Sabbath commandment is no different than any other commandment, all equally sin. We should kindly lead our fellow Christians on the correct path.

We are told exactly what the 'mark' of the 'beast' is about in Revelation 14:9-12: God's law and the faith of Jesus. It is not exclusively about Sunday but all babylonianism or romanism, which is not the "faith of Jesus". Further we can safely predict the Roman empire's 8th head will never establish a Sunday law in the West much less the entire world, due to the secular founding of their new empire, which includes people and nations of all backgrounds; for example there are Muslim politicians, and hospital doctors, and news persons. These people and many other world leaders would refuse to support such a plan. It will never happen, and is not planned. The holy roman empire is dead and not coming back as many look for. The Roman Church rules today through a secular new empire. She is quite allied with Islam who will never accept any Sunday laws.

Adventism and Ellen White

What the Vatican's new empire has on the agenda instead is extermination of all Christians, and Jews; also Native peoples, and all others who will never recognize or cooperate with the envisioned new empire. Such is the history of Rome, having done this for centuries.^{60,61} These non-Catholics have always been the Roman Church's historic foes. Extermination of Christianity today includes the Theory of Evolution, as Jesuits are those educators behind the pagan belief, which is contrary to God and creation.

Demographics has rightfully been called the mother of politics, the way nations are transformed; immigration of Latin and Islam is a top agenda as the Roman Church is united with Islam, one of her many daughters. Like earlier Crusades, the Vatican makes war with Islam only to eliminate all their foes. It was Islam who took down the Orthodox in the East, as Islam has been the evident sword of the Roman Church. We see more of this today in the Middle East wars & revolutions backed by western powers to move Islam into the west where there will possibly some day be even more civil war. Gun Control is on the agenda to prepare for this coming civil war or Crusade against then disarmed citizenry, to be replaced with incoming Latin & Muslim immigrants & refugees.

Adventism and Ellen White

Another ironic problem in Adventism is observing of Catholic holidays: Christmas, Easter, St Valentines Day, and Halloween. When this is brought up to members they often quote from Ellen white, as if her writings superceded the Bible. There are quotes from Ellen White about Christmas and the tree. However, how does this justify to the SDA, Easter or St Valentines Day?

Truth is, there is no justification for any of these pagan celebrations. The fact the General Conference of the SDA is in error about this today speaks volumes about the founding of Adventism. They have always been in error, founded by erroneous persons with an ulterior motive.

The SDA hospitals have joined with the Catholic hospitals in what can only be described as mass-depopulation incorporating numerous forms of bioethics.

The SDA schools teach anti-family Feminist agendas that are not Biblical.

William Miller was a Grand Master of his Freemason lodge. While he claimed to have renounced his membership, his fruits bear witness otherwise. His actions destroyed the entire 1844 movement surrounding the prophecy of the 2300 days (Daniel 8:14). Miller was not alone in this, but was spreading the same misinformation as a Jesuit in South America, Manuel Lacunza, who incidentally was claiming to be a Jewish Rabbi, Ben-Ezra, for better acceptance. The Jesuits and Freemasons were spreading misinformation, founding movements and churches--FACT.

Adventism and Ellen White

The Adventist organization still supports William Miller even after the destruction he caused, and even though he never joined the Adventist Church, choosing to remain Baptist.

While the SDA Church today does have the 2300 day prophecy understood there are many other errors since invented for Adventism as the liberals within devour like ravenous wolves. We cannot support erroneous dogma that has millions awaiting predictions that will never happen. Many believe until the Sunday Law appears all is okay in the world. This is just not so.

What Adventism has done to traditional Historicism is to turn it upside down and introduce a blend of Futurism, of sorts, amounting to ecumenism. The vials have been moved into the future. This was needed to claim the mark of the beast was not fulfilled during the French Revolution.

For many years SDA even had a "shut door" doctrine that was said to take place before the vials would begin. The SDA Church claims we are stuck awaiting Revelation 13 to be completely fulfilled as yet in future events when the U.S.A. becomes a religious dictatorship with a Sunday Law. This is never going to happen. The SDA founders were protecting the Roman Church's new empire that is secular, who ran the revolution and founded Washington DC, located in the former Catholic colony, Maryland.^{62,63,64,65,66} Revelation chapter 13 was fulfilled at that time and the vials began to pour on those with the mark of the beast during the French Revolution. Anyone who supported the old empire lost their heads! Those who could not buy or sell were not part of Rome's fascist empire, just as we are not today.

Adventism and Ellen White

The SDA's absurd claims, the vials are literal, is an aspect of Futurism. Historicism views prophecy using symbolism. The 'sores' and "rivers of blood" are not literal.

The SDA Church does have many Bible truths in their theology, including the correct Sabbath, and the state of the dead, and many others that Christians need to understand. The Reformers correctly understood the state of the dead, since forgotten by most Christian denominations.⁶⁷ However much of Revelation's timeline has been ecumenized with other denominations showing the hands behind it are one-and-the-same, the Jesuits.

William Miller's Freemason membership is not the only masonic connection with Adventist founders. The importance of this can not be stressed enough since the 8th head is ran by the newly founded Freemasons, who are actually the secret societies of the Vatican, her Papal Knights, the Knights Templar, who answer by an elaborate chain-of-command to the Jesuits.

The problems continue. Adventism introduces literalism with claims about falling stars and an earthquake, said to be the Lisbon earthquake, although they have a great deal of trouble aligning this with the 1260 year end date of 1798. Again, these are aspects of Futurism, not traditional Biblical Historicism.

Adventism and Ellen White

The trumpets are often, more recently in SDA teaching, blurred so not to expose Islam in the 5th and 6th trumpets, which even early SDA teaching did feature, since lost to Progressive Liberalism of once Historicist truth. The importance of losing this has been to protect the Roman Empire from receiving God's judgments that have been fulfilling for 2000 years. Slowly, Futurism creeps in as a replacement for Historicist Bible truth.

With SDA's fantastic claims about a coming National Sunday Law, that is said to go worldwide (national or worldwide?), even in the face of secularism and Islam, what is actually being taught is the Evangelical claims of a feared revived holy roman empire out of Europe. While we can all appreciate their love of Christ and proper identification of 'antichrist' (i.e. 42 month papal sea beast), any support for the Roman empire's 8th head is not the faith of Jesus, as the false doctrine comes from the Jesuits to protect their final empire.

"...and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is."
(Revelation 17:8)

While SDA individuals are absolutely God's people, even if in error, the denomination is ran by snakes, and looks like it always has been.

Chapter 9

The Vatican's New World Order

In this section the Roman empire's final incarnation will be covered in a way that can be easily understood and explained to others, followed by a detailed history of the rise of the new empire.

There is nothing to fear when researching world government. I am not selling fear. Rome rules the governments of the world and that is just the way it is. We are told it will be that way until Jesus returns to put an end to it. We are all free to worship as we please. There is no need to try and change the government. Rather use this information for your own safety and decisions in life. For example, would Jesus want his people joining the military if it was ultimately serving world government working against his people?

In New York City sits the United Nations. This institution was founded following World War II by members of the Council on Foreign Relations, also in NYC. The person chairing the CFR is David Rockefeller. His dad John Rockefeller donated the land where the U.N. building is situated. The CFR and U.N. work together for world government.^{68,69}

The Rockefellers like all international bankers and lawyers, are knights of the empire. Fascism is synonymous with the Roman empire since it was founded.

The Vatican's New World Order

The knightships are the Military Orders of the Vatican. The Vatican is a small country within Italy, the seat of the now dissolved Papal States and Holy Roman Empire. The Vatican's new empire dissolved and replaced the HRE by many revolutions and wars.

The knights who ran the Pope's empire fell out of favor all around Europe with the unpopular holy roman empire and inquisition. At this time the Knights Templar were suppressed or dissolved (1312), resurfacing as secret societies, including the Freemasons.^{70,71,72,73,74,75}

Many of these knights were officially secularized in 1798,⁷⁶ meaning their membership is open to men of any background or faith, although some Orders do require members to profess to be 'christian' of any denomination.⁷⁷ However as Knights of the Vatican they serve the empire through a chain-of-command answering to the Jesuit General and Pope, they view as head of Christendom and founder of their Knighthood. The Pope and Vatican retain power to dissolve the knighthood though this is seldom a threat as long as the Knights run the empire for the Vatican. The Templars were most recently absolved by the Pope after 700 years.

The Vatican's New World Order

There are strictly Catholic Knights, such as the Knights of Columbus and the Knights of Malta. The Knights of Columbus (KoC) were founded soon after the U.S. Civil War. President John F. Kennedy and his brother Ted were KoC.⁷⁸

The Freemasons, where the Templars are today, forbid Catholics. Likewise the Catholic Church forbids their membership in Freemasonry, unless the individual is a Protestant convert to Catholicism, in which case they may remain as Freemason and Catholic. Apparently many of these Templars do convert to the Catholic faith. This is one conversion avenue of the Roman Church. We often see high ranking Freemasons married to Catholics.

Besides the Freemasons many other secret societies, and new knightoods, have been created. The top level of the now secular knights have the authority to form new fraternities or knightood, which previously only the Pope could do. Found on colleges and universities across the U.S.A. are the many Greek letter fraternities that are actually recruitment grounds for the secret societies and world government.^{79,80} The candidates are often knighted right in the college frat through an initiation; for example, the Skull and Bones fraternity on Yale's campus are the Knights Eulogia. Eulogia is another word for the eucharist. The founders of the Skull and Bones fraternity were the Knights Templar Freemasons, William Russell and Alphoso Taft. This all goes back to Napoleon who crowned himself. Previously the Pope would crown rulers. Now the Knights of the new secular empire found knightoods previously done so by the Pope.

Why would these young men and women choose to be knighted to the Vatican's empire? Many were already brainwashed with evolution theories and are quite hostile to religion and in complete agreement with world government. Others were carefully selected through a hereditary knightood; their dad having been members. Still others are deceived at lower levels about what exactly they are involved in. The initiation rituals are designed to confuse about what the society is really about. Many do not even know what a Templar is until they reach the upper degrees of initiation.

The Vatican's New World Order

"Columbus Sailed the Ocean Blue in 1492"

Christopher Columbus is important to understand how the Vatican's rule over the Americas began. Columbus arrived in the New World in 1492. The Pope gave all of the New World to the Spanish Inquisition by the Papal Bull of 1493.^{81,82,83}

With Columbus slavery was introduced to all of the Americas.^{84,85,86} Spain went on a holocaust of the natives that continued until the British Colonists landed on the east coast of North America in 1584.⁸⁷

The Virginia Colony was founded and named after the Protestant, Queen Elizabeth. Virginia originally went up the entire eastern coast, and included parts of modern Canada.⁸⁸ This would later be divided as British kings granted additional colonies land.

The colonists were a problem for Spain who had plans for the New World that did not include Protestant or British colonies. Just a few years later in 1588 the Spanish Armada attacks England to depose Elizabeth. The fleet sinks in apparent bad weather, some say defeated in battle. This was a terrible loss for Spain and allowed the colonists to move freely for many years.^{89,90} Had Spain defeated England at that time there may have never been any Protestant colonies. (The movies Elizabeth 1 & 2 were produced about this time period, and seem to be rather accurate.)

The Vatican's New World Order

Spain still controlled the rest of the Americas including the entire West of North America. There were very few Catholics in the British Colonies and they were barred from political office due to their allegiances to their Pope's empire. Then in 1632 the Catholic colony, Maryland, was granted some land. This was the only Catholic colony and remained so until the 1775 revolution.^{91,92,93,94}

During the 18th century Freemason Lodges spread throughout the colonies. With the masonic lodges there were now three western powers vying for control of the New World: (1) The Protestant Colonies (2) The Catholic Spanish Colonies--old world order (3) The secular Jesuit and Freemason Templar Knights--new world order.

While the Spanish Catholics of North America, Mexico and most of the Americas, were the Vatican's old empire the Jesuit's new secular empire ran by the Freemasons also served the Vatican. These two would do battle not only at the French Revolution but also later in Mexico during the Cristero War.^{95,96} The Vatican's new world order was to remove and replace the old. This process began with the American Revolution.

The American Revolution followed the Quebec Act of 1774 where the King of England - himself a Papal Knight - gave large sections of North America to Canada, and abolished the need for Canadian officials to profess to be Protestant. This act was viewed as a direct threat to the British Colonies, leading to the American Revolution in 1775.⁹⁷

The Vatican's New World Order

The plot had been laid to found the Vatican's new empire that was to replace the loss of the Holy Roman Empire. The new empire's first republic was to be in the New World, and unlike the HRE this NWO was to be secular; no longer could the Vatican compel Catholicism upon the people.

The papal knights run everything in our society today, now more than ever: corporations, schools, government at all levels, and hospitals. Everything wrong in the hospitals was deliberately done by these papal knights, for depopulation, e.g. eugenics or bioethics, ran by the Knights of Malta or Hospitallers who founded the entire hospital system. The same is true of the government and economy, the schools and corporations--all part of the Vatican's fascist empire, who have total control in North America since the U.S. Civil War, 1865.⁹⁸

The Crown Temple

The governmental and judicial systems within the United States of America, at both federal and local state levels, is owned by the "Crown,". Before jumping to conclusions about the Queen of England or the Royal Families of Britain owning the U.S.A., this "Crown" is specifically referencing the established Templar Church, known for centuries by the world as the "Crown."

The Temple Church ⁹⁹ was built by the Knights Templar ¹⁰⁰ in two parts: the Round and the Chancel. The Round Church was consecrated in 1185 and modeled after the circular Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem. The Chancel was built in 1240. The Temple Church serves both the Inner and Middle Temples and is located between Fleet Street and Victoria Embankment at the Thames River. Its grounds also house the Crown Offices at Crown Office Row.

The Vatican's New World Order

All licensed Bar Attorneys in the U.S. owe their allegiance and give their solemn oath in pledge to the Crown Temple, realizing this or not. This is simply due to the fact that all Bar Associations throughout the world are signatories and franchises to the international Bar Association located at the Inns of Court at Crown Temple.

The Inns of Court to the Crown Temple use the Banking and Judicial system of the City of London - a sovereign and independent territory which is not a part of Great Britain (just as Washington D.C. is not a part of the north American states, nor is it a state) to defraud, coerce, and manipulate the American people. These Fleet Street bankers and lawyers are committing crimes in America under the guise and color of law. They are known collectively as the "Crown."

The present Queen of England is not the "Crown," as we have all been led to believe. Rather, it is the Bankers and Attorneys who are the actual Crown or Crown Temple. The Monarch aristocrats of England have not been ruling sovereigns since the reign of King John, circa 1215. All royal sovereignty of the old British Crown since that time has passed to the Crown Temple in Chancery.

Since the first Chancel of the Temple Church was built by the Knights Templar, this is not a new ruling system by any means. The Chancel, or Chancery, of the Crown Inner Temple Court was where King John was, in January 1215, when the English barons demanded that he confirm the rights enshrined in the Magna Carta. This City of London Temple was the headquarters of the Templar Knights in Great Britain where Order and Rule were first made, which became known as Code.

The Vatican's New World Order

By what authority has the “Crown” usurped the natural sovereignty of the American people? Is it acceptable that the U.S. Supreme Court decides constitutional issues in the U.S.A.? How can it be considered in any manner as being “constitutional” when this same Supreme Court is appointed by (not elected) and paid by the Federal U.S. Government?

The legal system (judiciary) of the U.S.A. is controlled by the Crown Temple from the independent and sovereign City of London. The private Federal Reserve System, which issues fiat U.S. Federal Reserve Notes, is financially owned and controlled by the Crown from Switzerland, the home and legal origin for the charters of the United Nations, the International Monetary Fund, the World Trade Organization, and most importantly, the Bank of International Settlements. Even Hitler respected his Crown bankers by not bombing Switzerland. The Bank of International Settlements in Basel, Switzerland controls all the central banks of the G7 nations. He who controls the gold rules the world.

Globally, all the legalistic scams promoted by the exclusive monopoly of the Temple Bar and their Bar Association franchises come from four Inns or Temples of Court: the Inner Temple, the Middle Temple, Lincoln's Inn, and Gray's Inn.^{101,102,103,104} These Inns/Temples are exclusive and private country clubs; secret societies of world power in commerce. They are well established, some having been founded in the early 1200's. The Queen and Queen Mother of England are current members of both the Inner Temple and Middle Temple. Gray's Inn specializes in Taxation legalities by Rule and Code for the Crown. Lincoln's Inn received its name from the Third Earl of Lincoln (circa 1300).

The Vatican's New World Order

Just like all U.S. based franchise Bar Associations, none of the Four Inns of the Temple are incorporated - for a definite and purposeful reason: You can't make claim against a non-entity and a non-being. They are private societies without charters or statutes, and their so-called constitutions are based solely on custom and self-regulation. In other words, they exist as secret societies without a public "front door" unless you're a private member called to their Bar.

While the Inner Temple holds the legal system franchise by license to steal from Canada and Great Britain, it is the Middle Temple that has legal license to steal from America. This comes about directly via their Bar Association franchises to the Honourable Society of the Middle Temple through the Crown Temple.

From THE HISTORY OF THE INN, Later Centuries, p.6, written by the Honourable Society of the Middle Temple, we can see a direct tie to the Bar Association franchises and its Crown signatories in America:

"Call to the Bar or keeping terms in one of the four Inns a pre-requisite to Call at King's Inns until late in the 19th century. In the 17th and 18th centuries, students came from the American colonies and from many of the West Indian islands. The Inn's records would lead one to suppose that for a time there was hardly a young gentleman in Charleston who had not studied here. Five of the signatories to the Declaration of Independence were Middle Templars, and notwithstanding it and its consequences, Americans continued to come here until the War of 1812."

The Vatican's New World Order

All Bar Association licensed Attorneys must keep the terms of their oath to the Crown Temple in order to be accepted or “called to Bar” at any of the King’s Inns. Their oath, pledge, and terms of allegiance are made to the Crown Temple.

It’s a real eye opener to know that the Middle Inn of the Crown Temple has publicly acknowledged there were at least five Templar Bar Attorneys, under solemn oath only to the Crown, who signed what was alleged to be an American Declaration of Independence. This simply means that both parties to the Declaration agreement were of the same origin, the Crown Temple. In case you don’t understand the importance of this, there is no international agreement or treaty that will ever be honored, or will ever have lawful effect, when the same party signs as both the first and second parties. It’s merely a worthless piece of paper with no lawful authority when both sides to any agreement are actually the same. In reality, the American Declaration of Independence was nothing more than an internal memo of the Crown Temple made among its private members.

By example, Alexander Hamilton was one of those numerous Crown Templars who was called to their Bar. In 1774, he entered King's College in New York City, which was funded by members of the London King’s Inns, now named Columbia University. In 1777, he became a personal aide and private secretary to George Washington during the American Revolution.

The Vatican's New World Order

In May of 1782, Hamilton began studying law in Albany, New York, and within six months had completed a three year course of studies, passed his examinations, and was admitted to the New York Bar. Of course, the New York Bar Association was/is a franchise of the Crown Temple through the Middle Inn. After a year's service in Congress during the 1782-1783 session, he settled down to legal practice in New York City as Alexander Hamilton, Esqr. In February of 1784, he wrote the charter for, and became a founding member of, the Bank of New York, the State's first bank.

He secured a place on the New York delegation to the Federal Convention of 1787 at Philadelphia. In a five hour speech on June 18th, he stated "an Executive for life will be an elective Monarch". When all his anti-Federalist New York colleagues withdrew from the Convention in protest, he alone signed the Constitution for the United States of America representing New York State, one of the legal Crown States.

Later, as President Washington's U.S. Treasury Secretary, Hamilton alone laid the foundation of the first Federal U.S. Central Bank, secured credit loans through Crown banks in France and the Netherlands, and increased the power of the Federal Government over the hoodwinked nation-states of the Union.

What happened in 1776?

1776 is the year that will truly live in infamy for all Americans. It is the year that the Crown Colonies became legal Crown States. The Declaration of Independence was a legal, not lawful, document. It was signed on both sides by representatives of the Crown Temple. Legally, it announced the status quo of the Crown Colonies to that of the new legal name called "States" as direct possessive estates of the Crown.

All "Constitutional Rights" in America are simply those dictated by the Crown Temple and enforced by the Middle Inn Templars (Bar Attorneys ¹⁰⁵) through their franchise and corporate government entity, the federal United States Government.

The Crown Temple was granted Letters Patent and Charters for all the land of New England by the King of England, a sworn member of the Middle Temple. Since the people were giving the patent/charter corporations and Colonial Governors such a hard time, especially concerning Crown taxation, a scheme was devised to allow the Americans to believe they were being granted "independence." Remember, the Crown Templars represented both parties to the 1776 Declaration of Independence; and, as we are about to see, the latter 1787 U.S. Constitution.

The Vatican's New World Order

To have this “Declaration” recognized by international treaty law, and in order to establish the new legal Crown entity of the incorporated United States, Middle Templar King George III agreed to the Treaty of Paris on September 3, 1783,¹⁰⁶ “between the Crown of Great Britain and the said United States”. The Crown of Great Britain legally was, then and now, the Crown Temple. This formally gave international recognition to the corporate “United States”, the new Crown Temple States. Most important is to know who the actual signatories to the Treaty of Paris were. Take particular note to the abbreviation “Esqr.” following their names as this legally signifies “Officers of the King’s Courts”, which we now know were Templar Courts or Crown Courts. This is the same Crown Templar Title given to Alexander Hamilton.

The Crown was represented in signature by “David Hartley, Esqr.”, a Middle Templar of the King’s Court. Representing the United States (a Crown franchise) by signature was “John Adams, Esqr”, “Benjamin Franklin, Esqr.” and “John Jay, Esqr.” The signatories for the “United States” were also Middle Templars of the King’s Court through Bar Association membership. What is plainly written in history proves, once again, that the Crown Temple was representing both parties to the agreement. What a perfect and elaborate scam the people of North America had pulled on them!

Since the Crown and its Templars represented both the United States, as the debtors, and the Crown, as the creditors, then they became the creditor of the American people by owning all debts of the former Colonies, now called the legal Crown States. This sounds too good to be true, but these are the facts.

The Vatican's New World Order

The Fiscal Agents of Mystery Babylon

Since its beginnings, the Temple Church at the City of London has been a Knight Templar secret society. It was built and established by the same Temple Knights who were given their Rule and Order by the Roman Pope. It's very important to know how the British Royal Crown was placed into the hands of the Knights Templars, and how the Crown Templars became the fiscal and military agents for the Pope of the Roman Church.

This all becomes very clear through the Concession Of England To The Pope on May 15, 1213.¹⁰⁷ Charter was sworn in fealty by England's King John to Pope Innocent and the Roman Church.

By swearing to the 1213 Charter in fealty, King John declared that the British-English Crown and its possessions at that time, including all future possessions, estates, trusts, charters, letters patent, and land, were forever bound to the Pope and the Roman Church, the landlord. Some five hundred years later, the New England Colonies in America became a part of the Crown as a possession and trust named the "United States."

The Pope and his Roman Church control the Crown Temple because his Knights established it under his Orders. He who controls the gold controls the world.

The Vatican's New World Order

The Crown Temple Today

The workings of the Crown Temple in this day and age is moreso obvious, yet somewhat hidden. The Crown Templars have many names and many symbols to signify their private and unholy Temple. Take a close look at the one dollar $1 private Federal Reserve System (a Crown banking franchise) Debt Note.

Notice in the base of the pyramid the Roman date MDCCLXXVI which is written in Roman numerals for the year 1776. The words ANNUIT COEPTIS NOVUS ORDO SECLORUM are Roman Latin for ANNOUNCING THE BIRTH OF THE NEW ORDER OF THE WORLD. 1776 signifies the birth of the New World Order under the Crown Temple. That's when their American Crown Colonies became the chartered government called the United States, thanks to the Declaration of Independence. Since that date, the United Nations (another legal Crown Temple by charter) rose up and refers to every nation as a State member.

Mystery Babylon Revealed

There is no mystery behind the current abomination of Babylon for those who discern His Truth:

“And on her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.” (Revelation 17:5)

The Vatican's New World Order

God has reserved His judgment for the great idolatress, Rome, the chief seat of all idolatry, that rules over many nations with whom the kings have committed to the worship of her idols. The Pope and His purported Church; sitting on the Temple throne at the Vatican; ruling the nations of the earth through the Crown Temple of ungodly deities are the Rule and Order of Babylon; the Crown of godlessness and the Code of commerce.

One may call the Rule of the world today by many names: The New World Order (a Bush family favourite), the Third Way (spoken by Tony Blair and Bill Clinton), the Illuminati, Masonry, the United Nations, the E.U., the U.S., or many dozens of other names. However, they all point to one origin and one beginning. We have traced this in history to the Crown Temple, the Temple Church circa 1200. Because the Pope created the Order of the Temple Knights (the Grand Wizards of deception) and established their mighty Temple Church in the sovereign City of London, it is the Pope and his Roman Capitols who control the world.

*“And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet color, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication.”
(Revelation 17:4)*

This verse appears to be an accurate description of the Pope and His Bishops for the past 1,700 years. The idolatries of commerce in the world: all the gold and silver; the iron and soft metals; the money and coins and riches of the world: All of these are under the control of the Crown Temple; the Roman King and his false Church; the throne of Babylon; attended to by his Templar Knights, the Wizards of abomination and idolatry.

The Vatican's New World Order

Now that their false Temple has been exposed, how does this apply to the Kingdom of Heaven? To reach the end, you must know the beginning. For everything ordained of God, there is an imitation ordained of evil that looks like the genuine thing. There is the knowledge of good and the knowledge of evil.

"The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sits." (Revelation 17:9)

The false Crown Temple and its Grand Wizard Knights have led the world to believe that they are of the Lord God and hold the knowledge and keys to His Kingdom. What they hold within their Temples are the opposite. They claim to be the "Holy Church," but which holy church? The real one or the false one? Are the Pope and his Roman Church the Temple of God, or is this the unholy Temple of Babylon sitting upon the seven mountains?

The U.S. Civil War - The Second Revolution

The U.S. Constitution incorporated the best form of government ever devised, a republic. However, today, the United States is far different than before the Civil War.

Following the American Revolution, in 1790 Washington D.C. was built. Territories were acquired coast to coast, then it was time for another war, for greater federal control over the states. State governments were replaced and given new constitutions. The government in Jefferson City, Missouri, was driven out of town by Union troops and replaced.¹⁰⁸

“He who controls the past controls the future. He who controls the present controls the past.”
George Orwell, 1984.

To find true motives for wars look at the outcome of the war, and that was the objective of the conspiracy who started the war. During the Civil War state governments were replaced and amendments made to the U.S. Constitution on citizenship and jurisdiction, placing all citizens under federal jurisdiction, previously state citizens. But, that was not the only objective, as we shall see.

The secret societies advocating, organizing and running the Civil War apparently had various contingent plans.

The Vatican's New World Order

The Knights of the Golden Circle was a secret society originally founded to promote the interests of the Southern United States. It was to prepare the way for annexation of a golden circle of territories in Mexico, Central America, and the Caribbean to be included in the United States as slave states.¹⁰⁹

In the north, Copperhead politicians, who were Catholic and often KGC, conspired on all sides fomenting war.¹¹⁰ President Lincoln assassin John Wilkes Booth is believed to have been a member.¹¹¹

President Lincoln Assassination

The assassin John Wilkes Booth was shot escaping while nine others went on trial for the murder of the president. The escaped man was John Surratt, son of Mary Surratt. Mary had been convicted of allowing her home to be used to organize the assassination, and the first female to receive the death penalty by the U.S. Federal Government.^{112,113,114,115,116}

The Vatican's New World Order

John Surratt went on the run and was later discovered serving in the Vatican's guard, the Papal Zouave. Following a brief stint on the run again John was returned to the U.S. where he finally stood trial for his role in the assassination plot, only to be freed on technicalities. Many books were written at the time about these events, including one by a Civil War General who sat on the jury of the Lincoln Assassination.¹¹⁷

The sovereign states were the only Protestant rule in all of the Americas. After the Civil War Washington D.C. founded the Pan-American Union that rules all of North and South America, today renamed: the Organization of the American States.¹¹⁸

The Knights of the KKK

Following the Civil War the KGC became the Knights of the KKK to divide the newly freed African-Americans from the Protestant Christians, often burning crosses to instill fear of anything Christian.^{119,120}

Since the Civil War the Jesuits and the new Knights of Columbus work to "Make America Catholic".

The Vatican's New World Order

Historians are quick to document World War II and Russian death camps. There have been, however, such camps in early American history.

The French Revolution is important to fully understand early American history, as both happened in the same time period, and ran by the same conspiracy. Thomas Jefferson and Ben Franklin fully supported the French Revolution.^{121,122} After the American Revolution the capital city, Washington, was built in 1790; the French Revolution (1789-1798) was just underway.

The Freemasons' revolution in France was much bloodier than in America. The French Jacobins (Freemasons¹²³) used the guillotine and other means to massacre the French. Unlike France, Christianity was not abolished in America, and there was no support for depopulation. Also a thorn in the side of the revolutionaries, each state retained sovereign rights. Specifically a problem was the Protestant "test oath" for political office that kept Catholics and others out of politics, viewed as agents of Rome with less than American loyalties.^{124,125,126}

The Civil War was for a time called the second American revolution. It was during this war the revolutionary Freemasons got their concentration camps and depopulation of the American Christians.^{127,128} The states lost sovereignty, including the test oath.^{129,130,131} Soon after, the French Freemasons sent the Statue of Liberty as a gift of celebration.¹³² Karl Marx at the time considered the Civil War *"America's Communist Revolution"*¹³³ i.e. masonic war of federal aggression.

The Civil War camps were part of the plan to make America Catholic. The post-war test oath required ministers to swear to obey Washington D.C. Those who refused met with problems.¹³¹

Make America Catholic

Papal Rome has always stated her intention to make America Catholic: "Our work is to make America Catholic... and our hearts shall leap toward it with crusader enthusiasm." (Bishop Ireland, Baltimore Catholic Council, 1890)

After the Civil War and Reconstruction the Papal Knights founded a round table, the Pilgrim Society.¹³⁴ It was members of this society who founded the Federal Reserve, CFR & RIIA.^{135,136}

In the U.S.A., a Protestant land, the majority of people in power are Roman Catholic.¹³⁷

Congress: Majority Roman Catholic.

Supreme Court: Majority Roman Catholic.

President's Cabinet: Majority Roman Catholic.

Members of the Pentagon: Majority Roman Catholic.

The Czars of the new DHS, more of the same. Tom Ridge is a Knight of Columbus, while Janet Napolitano graduated a Jesuit university.

Roman Catholics are still only 24% minority in America. But on the south side is Mexico 82% Roman Catholic, and on the north side Canada 38% Roman Catholic. How could the process of making of America Catholic be hastened? Answered: open the borders!

The Vatican's New World Order

"ABOLISH the U.S.A."

The Council on Foreign Relations produced a document requiring President Bush and the U.S. Congress to dissolve the 225 year old United States as an independent nation. The CFR published its plan in a book, entitled Building a North American Community. Authored by three elite members of the New York-based organization, the book calls for the ending of American sovereignty and the overthrow of the American Constitution and government.

Making America Catholic

The Roman hierarchy knew that the older Protestants, who had read about the persecutions of the Dark Ages, and who knew some of the inside workings of the Papal Church, would never become Catholics. Rome's hope lay in capturing the younger generation. If the Papacy could cover up those dark pages of its history, when it waded in the blood of martyrs, and could appear in the beautiful modern dress of a real champion for liberty, as a lover of science, art, and education, it would appeal to the American youth, and the battle would be won.

The Jesuits, who through years of experience in Europe, have become experts in molding young minds, are now establishing schools everywhere, that are patronized by thousands of Protestant youth. They have also undertaken the delicate task of Romanizing the textbooks of our public schools, and books of reference, in order to cover up their past, and to whitewash the Dark Ages.

The Vatican's New World Order

Blueprint For Catholic America

Dr. Alberto Rivera received briefings in the Vatican when he was a Jesuit priest. He was briefed on how the Vatican planned to take over the United States. Because of the knowledge of the Inquisition and the slaughter of Christians by the Roman Church, the early immigrants in America began passing laws to keep Jesuits out of this country, to protect themselves from a Vatican take-over.¹³⁸ The Jesuits made sure this part of our history was erased and removed.

The next major move by the Jesuits was to destroy or control all the Christian schools across America.¹³⁹

History of Catholic Immigration in the United States

By the time of the American Revolution, 35,000 Catholics formed 1.2% of the 2.5 million population of the thirteen seaboard colonies. The Catholic population of the United States, which had been 35,000 in 1790, increased to 195,000 in 1820 and then ballooned to about 1.6 million in 1850, by which time, Catholics had become the country's largest religion. Between 1860 and 1890 the population of Roman Catholics in the United States tripled primarily through immigration. By the end of the century, there were 12 million Catholics in the United States.

By the beginning of the 20th century, approximately one-sixth of the population of the United States was Roman Catholic. By the end of the 20th century, Catholics constituted 24% of the population. Modern Roman Catholic immigrants come to the United States from the Philippines, Poland, and Latin America, especially from Mexico.

The Vatican's New World Order

According to Luis Lugo, the director of the Pew Forum on Religion and Public Life, nearly a quarter of all Catholics in the United States are foreign born. He notes: "To know what the country will be like in three decades, look at the Catholic church."

Some anti-immigrant and Nativism movements have also been anti-Catholic. Anti-Catholicism was led by Protestant ministers who labeled Catholics as un-American "Papists", incapable of free thought without the approval of the Pope, and thus incapable of full republican citizenship.

Immigration

The so-called "melting pot" is a myth perpetuated upon Americans by advocates of suicidal multiculturalism. Only since the 1965 Immigration Act have the borders been open to wider demographics that has not been an improvement as originally claimed.

John F. Kennedy initially proposed an overhaul of American immigration policy that later was to become the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1965,^{140,141} sponsored by Kennedy's brother Senator Edward Kennedy. It dramatically shifted the source of immigration from Northern and Western European countries towards immigration from Latin America and Asia and shifted the emphasis of selection of immigrants towards facilitating family reunification. Kennedy wanted to dismantle the selection of immigrants based on country of origin and saw this as an extension of his civil rights policies.

World Wars I & II

Since the end of World War II and with the advent of the internet it is now possible to better understand the cause and outcome of the war.

History of World War II is often written about race and the Holocaust. Race is but a layer of the onion to mask the real motive. The propaganda from Nazi Party psychiatrists and eugenicists claimed "lesser races" needed cleansed.^{142,143,144,145} But the real motivation for the war? The Russian Revolution and Civil War of 1917-23, and World Wars I & II, are considered by some historians to have had a single cause.¹⁴⁶ The Papal States were seized several times beginning with Napoleon in 1798 until finally being dissolved in 1870.^{147,148} Threatened with total annihilation the Vatican's fascist Military Knights¹⁴⁹ ran all sides of the wars to ETHNIC CLEANSE their historic foes: Protestant, Russian & Eastern Orthodox and Jewish peoples.

In 1917, the very year of the Russian Revolution, at Fatima, the Catholics were being recruited by their priests with superstitious hysteria. Fatima's second message: "Russia would be consecrated to the Catholic Church."^{150,151}

However, the roll call of the Bolshevik Party does not support this claim.^{155,156} The Knights Templar of the Freemasons removed the Russian Orthodox from power in Moscow, dechristianize Russia,¹⁵⁷ and send the Jewish people into exile,¹⁵⁸ coinciding the Balfour Declaration creating the nation of Israel.¹⁵⁹

Roman Catholicism was the sole established religion in the country in the 15th century, but the Reformation changed this drastically. In 1517 Martin Luther challenged the Catholic Church as he saw it as a corruption of Christian faith. Through this, he altered the course of European and world history and established Protestantism.

Before World War II, about two-thirds of the German population was Protestant and one-third was Roman Catholic. In the north and northeast of Germany especially, Protestants dominated - Placed behind the Soviet wall - Protestant areas were much more affected by secularism than predominantly Catholic areas. The predominantly irreligionist states (Hamburg and the East German states) used to be Lutheran strongholds.^{177,178,179}

Countdown To The Second Coming

Accordingly, the next event will be the Second Coming (Revelation 19:11-16). There's literally nothing left before that blessed day! It seems Satan knows time is short.

Some Christians are predicting a time frame for the Second Coming based on 120 x 50 year jubilees (Gn 6:3), and crucifixion + 2000 years (Hosea 6:2), often called the millennial week.

Why the crucifixion and not Jesus' birth or some other day? The millennial week would have begun when Adam and Eve were thrown out of the Garden. Thus from the first sacrifice to the cross would be exactly 4000 years.

Chronology Of Jubilees

It is evident that each 7th year in ancient Israel was once observed as a Sabbatical year. In 7th years crops were not sown or harvested.

In the late Second-Temple Era, the custom of letting the land rest in each 7th year was an important tenant of Jewish law. Flavius Josephus, a historian who lived in the First Century AD, described the Jewish custom of observing the Sabbatical law in some detail. The writings of the rabbis and certain ancient contracts also make it clear that Jews living under the late Second Temple were careful to observe each of the Sabbatical years.

Countdown To The Second Coming

The law concerning the keeping of a Sabbatical year was complied with at a national level. Throughout the territory of Judea, it would have been mandatory for farmers to observe each 7th year as a Sabbatical year. The requirement to observe Sabbatical years throughout Judea would have been in force until the Second Temple fell (70 AD).

Under the Temple system, it is clear that the priests were responsible for announcing festivals and special events. Furthermore, the priests were responsible for scheduling certain agricultural activities. It remarkably seems that the priesthood regulated just when the various crops were reaped

To augment the decision as to when it was permissible for Israel to gather in crops, the priests appear to have used a weekly schedule (Jeremiah 5, 24). The grain harvest, the collection of wine-grapes, and the ultimate gathering of olives could only be harvested on schedule.

Thus, year-in and year-out, the priests held a significant role in regulating the harvest-cycle. The priesthood controlled when it was permissible to only eat old-stores, and when it was permissible to gather in new crops.

Because the priesthood officially scheduled the harvest-cycle, Sabbatical years in the late Second Temple Era are rather easy to identify.

The jubilee-year

Some sources indicate the late Second Temple practice of observing 7-sets of 7-years. (Leviticus 25:3-12)

Accordingly, 7-sets of 7-years were first counted-out and then a jubilee year (or a 50th year) was additionally counted. The 50th - like the 7th - was specially observed; where in each 50th, crops were not sown, tended, or reaped.

Countdown To The Second Coming

In the second century BC the Pharisees who had been influenced by Alexandria introduced a bogus 49-year jubilee sequence and have tried to break the sequence of the law and the cycles ever since.

The works of Josephus reflect this distortion where he, as a Pharisee, tries to insert their views but has to state the Roman decrees as they were made which show the correct Temple Calendar and the paper shows that fact as does the archaeological evidence we have found, which is in accordance with the Temple calendar.

Influence of the Greeks

The prospect that a 50th year was more anciently observed raises the question as to why and when a jubilee-year was no longer celebrated under the late Second Temple. The point in time when a jubilee-year was last observed appears to have been sometime within a rather lengthy period when the Greeks and then the Romans were in control of Judea.

Judea was at first subjugated by Alexander the Great in 331 BCE. Afterwards, Judeans were required to pay tribute or taxes to the more powerful Greeks. The requirement to pay taxes was tightened under the subsequent rule of the Romans who likewise imposed taxes upon the Judeans.

Thus, the time and the reason for why a jubilee-year was not observed under the late Second Temple was surely related - at least in part - to a requirement on the part of the Judeans to pay tribute to the Greeks and later to the Romans.

Countdown To The Second Coming

The books of Josephus (and the Maccabees) indicate the Greeks gave the Judeans an exemption from paying taxes in those Sabbatical years. The Romans likewise were generous enough to reduce taxes in each 7th year.

Even through tax concessions were granted, it is apparent the jubilee-year was no longer observed in the late Second Temple Era. Sources from this era make it clear that by the time of the 177th year Seleucid, Judeans may have no longer been observing a jubilee-year. These several sources make it unmistakably clear that a 50th year was not officially observed after the Second Century BC.

Occupied Israel

Early Jewish literature shows that the land could be cultivated in 7th years under special circumstances.

After the Second Temple fell, some among the rabbis taught that it was permissible for Jews to refrain from observing Sabbatical years when living on foreign occupied lands. It was also considered permissible to not rest on 7th days - but only under certain circumstances.

It then becomes significant that the time of the occupation of Judea by the Greeks and Romans constituted circumstances under which it was probably permissible to cultivate land in 7th years. During the lengthy period of foreign occupation, it seems that national sovereignty and personal freedom were - at times - very hard to bargain for.

Among the traditions that surely were surrendered under these conditions was that of the jubilee-year observance.

Countdown To The Second Coming

The law concerning the jubilee-year embodied the concept of Israelite occupation and ownership of the land. In each 50th year land titles were returned to their previous owners (Leviticus 25).

Thus the keeping of a jubilee-year was related to the maintenance of national sovereignty and to the retention of land ownership.

The observance of a jubilee-year was inherently contingent upon Israelite ownership and occupation of the land. Essentially, as long as Israelites dwelled in foreign lands, or when foreigners were in control of Israelite lands, it would have been meaningless for Israelites to observe jubilee-years. Thus, for as long as the occupation lasted the observation of a jubilee-year was not required in Judea.

It is significant the law to observe a jubilee-year would have continued, but only if foreign occupiers specifically allowed the Judeans to observe it. Both the Greeks and the Romans did - in fact - grant Judeans a reduction or exemption from paying taxes in 7th years. The exemption which allowed the 7th years observance apparently was not necessarily granted in the respect of the 50th jubilee-year.

The late Second Temple

Based upon the unbroken chronology of 7-years after about the 177th Seleucid year, it is quite clear that the priesthood of the late Second Temple Era did not officially celebrate a 50th jubilee-year.

From the late Second Temple sources, the chronology of the once observed cycle of 7-years is rather easy to reconstruct. It is clear that a continuous run of 7-year-cycles was counted between about 135 BCE and 139 CE. This period of history straddles some 273 years (or contains 39 cycles of 7-years). During this lengthy stretch of history, Sabbatical years were observed in the years 135 BC, 44 BC, 37 BC, 55 AD, 69 AD, and 139 AD.

Countdown To The Second Coming

Sabbatical years were observed in an unbroken cycle throughout the late Second Temple Era. It is of special interest that if the cycle of 7-years was extended from the First-Century into this Twenty-First Century then a 7th year would have occurred in correspondence with the year 2000-2001 (from autumn-to-autumn).

The crucifixion

It is of special interest that the year in which Jesus was crucified is indicated to have corresponded with a jubilee-year. Based upon the contents of the book of Luke, Jesus was crucified in spring of the year 31 AD. Dropping the year zero results in the jubilee-year.

Chronology of jubilees

The chronology of jubilee-years is a bit more difficult to determine. This is because a jubilee-year was not routinely observed in the late Second-Temple Era.

The time when early Israel once celebrated a year-of-liberty (50th year) can be determined to within a degree of certainty. A compilation and analysis of various priestly sources indicates the chronology of a once performed 50-year-cycle.

The source information indicates a 50th year would certainly have been celebrated in Judea in the year 171-170 BC (from autumn to autumn). It is less certain if a jubilee-year was observed 50-years later in the year of 121-120 BC.

Countdown To The Second Coming

The location of a once observed jubilee-year is ultimately essential for identifying which year in this modern era corresponds to the occurrence of a jubilee-year.

Based upon the priestly sources, it appears that the year 1980-81 last corresponded to the once celebrated jubilee-year. These sources likewise indicate that - in the Twenty-First Century - the year 2030-31 will again correspond to the jubilee-year.

The Biblical Feast Days - God's Calender

Now that we have the most likely year of the Second Coming can we narrow this down to a particular feast day?

The Feast Days are God's heavenly temple anti-type of what took place at Israel's temple.

- Passover: The crucifixion.
- Feast of Pentecost: outpouring of the Holy Spirit.
- Trumpets: 7th trumpet, 1789.
- Day of Atonement: 1844.
- Feast of Tabernacles: Second Coming harvest.

The Feast of Tabernacles (Tishri 15) in the year 2031 is October 02.^{190,191} I am not setting any date for the Second Coming, only calculate 2000 years from the cross. As we draw closer to the day we will need to ask ourselves if the earth is ready? Has everyone hardened their hearts so that all have made their decision one way or the other? With the internet I believe this is now possible. The politically charged debates online over the Theory of Evolution is a good example.

Chapter 11

Questions

1. Who are the 144,000?

Two passages from Revelation chapters 7 and 14:1 mention the 144,000 with God's seal in their foreheads. Are these Jews at the end of time, or Christians?

The Futurists have been claiming the 144,000 of Revelation chapter 7 are literal Jews at the end of time. What kind of just God would save only a few at the end of time?

The apostles and Jesus explained many times the tribes of Israel were lost due to disobedience, and the kingdom given to all of faith in Jesus. The Christians then became a spiritual Jew or spiritual Israel; the Church and bride of Christ. The Jewish people can accept the faith like an Arab or anyone else. Many of the first Christians were Jews.

Exodus 19:5, God said to Israel, "If you will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then you shall be a peculiar treasure to me above all people: for all the earth is mine." Thus the OT physical Israel of twelve tribes being "a peculiar treasure... above all people" was conditional upon their obedience to God's voice.

Questions

2 Kings 21:8 Neither will I make the feet of Israel move any more out of the land which I gave their fathers; only if they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them.

Matthew 21:43 Therefore say I to you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

Matthew 23:37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you that kill the prophets, and stone them which are sent unto you, how often would I have gathered my children together, even as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings, and you would not! Behold, your house is left to you desolate.

Acts 13:46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you Jews: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.

Acts 18:5,6 Paul was pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ. And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean; from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

Romans 9:6 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel: Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called. 8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

Galatians.3:7 Know you therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

Questions

Galatians.6:15,16 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision avails any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature. And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and on the Israel of God.

Philippians.3:3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

1 Peter 2:9 But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that you should show forth the praises of him who has called you out of darkness into his marvelous light; Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God:

All these verses and more tell us the same thing, that Jesus fulfilled Israel's sacrificial system that was a shadow of the coming Messiah, who actually forgives our sin with grace.

Galatians 3:24 Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

Hebrews 10:1 For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

Questions

Jesus is the High Priest. There can be no more earthly temple:

Hebrews 4:14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession. For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

For more on Jesus as our High Priest in the heavenly temple see: Hebrews: 7:26,27; 8:1,2; 9:11,12; 9:22-26.

The 144,000 total 12,000 from 12 tribes of spiritual Israel. It is a prophetic symbolic number for spiritual Israel or Christianity who enter the twelve gates of New Jerusalem.

Questions

2. What is the mark of the beast?

The passages on the "mark of the beast" refer to an individual with allegiances to Rome's empire, be it the Roman Church, her holy roman empire, or the new secular world empire. Spiritual or political. One fellow asked of me, why he could not be a Freemason and a Protestant Christian? A Templar serving Rome's empire would be accepting her mark of authority.

The numerous Bible commentaries written following the Reformation until the 1909 advent of Scofield are almost entirely unanimous on this:

Geneva Bible notes (c.1599)
Matthew Henry (c.1700)
John Gill (c.1770)
Adam Clarke (c.1830)
Albert Barnes (c.1860)
Jamieson, Fausset and Brown (c.1871)
Barton Johnson (c.1890)
James Wylie (c.1890)

All have read the same Bible we read today and concluded the 'mark' is submission to the authority of the papacy.

Questions

3. When is armageddon?

Revelation 16:14-16 "...to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watches, and keeps his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon."

This passage looks to the Second Coming, "that great day of God Almighty". Then we are told "behold I come as a thief" giving another reference to the Second Coming

1 Thessalonians 5:2 For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night.

Satan and his forces make war with Jesus at the Second Coming.

These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast. These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful. (Revelation 17:13-14)

Questions

4. Who are the giants of Genesis 6?

There is a heretical doctrine spreading, mostly on the internet, but also among some fringe authors, who often use non-canon books such as the book of Enoch to claim fallen angels had relations with women to produce an offspring that is still with us today.

The so-called book of Enoch could not have been written by Enoch who lived before the flood and Noah. According to scholars on the text, large sections of it were written AD by numerous authors. Nowhere does inspired canon quote from this book of Enoch.

What we read in Genesis 6 is that God was to destroy the world by flood due to SIN, not genetics. The sons of God--God's people--had intermarried with the daughters of men--the line of Cain. The result was a large problem in the earth of fallen away and hedonism. This was written in the Hebrew as "nephilim" and translated English: giants, from the same root word meaning "feller".

Nowhere in the old or new testaments does the "sons of God" ever refer to fallen angels. It always refers to God's people, or in one case God's angels, but never the fallen angels.

John 1:12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

Romans 8:14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

Questions

The following often abused and sometimes little understood passage in the book of Job.

Job 1:6 Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them. -- Satan is not a son of God but was among God's people present in prayer, or earthly manifestation of God in the Temple. (see Matthew Henry commentary) Satan cannot go to heaven as some are claiming with this passage. Satan was cast down to earth where he will remain.

Job 38:7 When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy? -- Here the sons of God are angels in heaven at creation.

Ezekiel 32:27-28 And they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, which are gone down to hell with their weapons of war: and they have laid their swords under their heads, but their iniquities shall be upon their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living. Yea, thou shalt be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain with the sword.

There you have it, proof the "fallen" (nephil) are "the uncircumcised" line of Cain, not fallen angels. The passage warns against unequally yoked marriage.

The physically large tribe of human giants is Hebrew: "rapha" (Deu 2:11)

Questions

5. Did Genesis borrow stories from Sumerian tablets?

The atheists have been working overtime to substantiate their Theory of Evolution. To do this they need to discredit Genesis. If you send your children off to college they should be prepared for Comparative Religion 101 where the book of Genesis is viciously attacked by non-believers pretending to teach the Bible and Genesis.

Two hundred years ago, scholars doubted whether Babylon ever existed. The only record could be found in the Bible. Critics used the story of Babylon, and what they called its "non-historic kings," to discount Scripture. However, Babylon was discovered and excavated in 1898.

We know today that Babylon was one of the first cities in the world, and founded by Nimrod, great-grandson of Noah (Genesis 10:9-10). Archaeologists have found his name on many inscriptions and tablets, while a massive head of Nimrod has been excavated near Calah on the Tigris River.¹⁹²

Sumeria is located in the Land of Kish (Kush or Cush) founded by son of Noah's son Ham.

Kish was occupied beginning in the Jemdet Nasr period (3100 BC), gaining prominence as one of the pre-eminent powers in the region during the early dynastic period.

Questions

The Sumerian king list states that it was the first city to have kings following the deluge, beginning with Jushur.¹⁹³

Cush, son of Ham. The Empire of Kush to the south of Egypt is known from at least 1970 BC, but this name has also been associated by some with the Kassites who inhabited the Zagros area of Mesopotamia, the Sumerian city of Kish in the Land of Kish.¹⁹⁴

The Sumerian Kish, the first city established in Mesopotamia after the Flood, took its name from the man known in the Bible as Cush. The first kingdom established after the Flood was Kish, and the name "Kish" appears often on clay tablets. The early post-Flood Sumerian king lists say that "kingship descended from heaven to Kish" after the Flood.¹⁹⁵

Many assume Moses wrote Genesis, but according to one theory on the authorship of Genesis this could not be the case since there is no way Moses could have known events all the way back to and including creation, before Adam. The style of writing and the numerous colophons point to many authors of the book of Genesis--the oldest text on the planet.¹⁹⁶

Moses would have been under divine inspiration while on Mount Sinai to translate Genesis to Hebrew, and author the other four books of the Torah. The same is true of the New Testament writers who were given direct divine inspiration from Jesus (John 20:22). All the writers of the Bible were under this direct divine inspiration.
